Policy:

- Office Acceptance – Upon ratification of election results, all elected student officials accept the General Oath of Office. This oath is also necessary for the Deputy Returning Officer and all ASA committee appointments.
- Multiple Appointments - When installing more than one person into office at any given time, the General Oath of Office shall be used with the exception that a list of all appointees shall be read and the terminology will become plural.
- Administration of Oath - In the spring, the outgoing President shall administer the Oath of Office. In the fall, the President shall administer the Oath. Should the President be unavailable, the Vice-President Academic shall assume the responsibility, then the Vice-President Finance, then the Vice-President Communications, and then the Vice-President Student Life.
