Bylaw 3 MEMBERSHIP

3.01 Membership

The membership of the Students' Association shall consist of:

- i. all full time members;
- ii. all part time members; and
- iii. honorary members.

3.02 Definition of Membership

1. Full time members shall be those undergraduate students taking full time courses at Augustana Faculty in the current academic year, and who have paid their required ASA fees.
2. Part time members shall be those students taking part time courses at Augustana Faculty in the current academic year, and who have paid their required ASA fees.
3. Honorary members shall be those persons who have been given lifetime standing as an ASA member by the Augustana Students' Council. These persons shall not be required to pay any fees to the Students' Association in order to obtain full time status. Honorary membership shall be conferred to persons who have contributed greatly to the ASA.
4. Members in good standing shall be all full and part time students at Augustana Faculty who have paid their required ASA fees.
5. Non-standing members shall be those full and part time students at Augustana Faculty who have not paid their ASA fees in their entirety or students who have voluntarily withdrawn from the ASA. These students may therefore be banned from all services, events, and functions sponsored by the Students' Association, and will not be entitled to any rights and privileges of membership.

3.03 Eligibility

1. For the purposes of these bylaws, any full or part time student attending Augustana Faculty is eligible for membership in the ASA as defined in our bylaws.
2. All members in good standing of the ASA shall be entitled to exercise any of the rights and/or privileges of the Students' Association.

3.04 Withdrawal from Students' Association

If a member wishes to withdraw from the Students' Association written notice must be delivered to the Executive Council. Upon receipt of notification, that person shall cease to be a member, and his/her Students' Association fees shall be forfeited to the ASA.

3.05 Rights and Responsibilities of Membership

1. All Members in Good Standing of the Students' Association have the right to:
  - a. access all services provided by the ASA;
  - b. attend and participate in all functions and events organized by the ASA;
  - c. attend all ASC meetings and voice concerns and opinions to the Council;
  - d. serve as ASA representatives on any boards, committees, and councils as deemed necessary;
  - e. vote in Students' Association elections, referendums, and plebiscites;
  - f. form and participate in clubs and organizations that are under the direction of the Students' Association; and
  - g. exercise any other rights as set out in these Bylaws.
2. All members in good standing of the Students' Association have the responsibility to act in accordance with the Bylaws of the ASA.

3.06 Loss of Membership

Membership in the ASA shall cease when a student graduates or withdraws from Augustana Faculty, unless they have been given an honorary membership from the Students' Association.

3.07 Membership Fees

1. The fee structure shall reflect student status during a given academic term:
  - a. a full time student shall pay the full ASA fee;

- b. a part time student shall pay 50% of the full ASA fee; and
  - c. any part time auditing student shall not pay the ASA fee.
2. ASA fees will be established through the ASA Fee Policy.
3. All ASA fees shall be collected by the University of Alberta and remitted through the University of Alberta Students' Union.
4. SA fees are non-refundable for students who withdraw from Augustana Faculty after the thirtieth calendar day of the academic term, and the University of Alberta shall not refund SA fees for students who withdraw after this time period.

3.08 Budget

Fees shall be broken down into the specified categories established and approved through the provisions of the ASA Fee Policy. The fee structure and accompanying information will be provided to the appropriate administrative bodies at Augustana Campus and the University of Alberta, for information.

Bylaw 4 GENERAL MEETINGS

4.01 Bi-Annual General Meetings

1. There shall be two (2) Annual General Meetings of the ASA per academic year.
2. The meeting dates shall be prior to November 31st and March 31st of each academic year.
3. Notice of any General Meeting of the Students' Association shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Societies Act (Alberta) and shall be given not less than twenty-one (21) days before the date of any General Meeting of the Students' Association. Notice shall consist of advertisement through student media, SA web site, posters located in high traffic areas, and verbal announcements to the student body. All notifications shall include the date, time, and location for the meeting.
4. Unless otherwise stated in the Bylaws or standing resolution of the Augustana Students' Association, procedure for all meetings of the ASC and ASA shall be in accordance with Bourinot's Rules of Order, latest edition.

- viii. decide whether to chair ASC meetings or to appoint a chair from the Students' Council;
- ix. fulfill the role of student advocate by representing students in issues between the Administration, Staff, and Professors;
- x. conduct an annual job and salary review for the Executive Director; and
- xi. follow the policy and update as approved by the ASC.

b. The Vice-President Academic, who shall

- i. review, change, and update the ASA Bylaws and Polices as suggested by the ASC;
- ii. perform the duties of the President if he or she is unable to do so;
- iii. be responsible for communication between the ASA and the Students' Union;
- iv. be responsible for annually providing the Students' Union with officer contact information;
- v. be a signing officer of the ASA;
- vi. make recommendations to ASC on the appointment of students to sit on committees of Augustana, as well as represent the ASA on certain committees of the institution if deemed important by the ASC;
- vii. follow the policy and update as approved by the ASC; and
- viii. in the event that the ASA wishes to advocate for a policy that is contrary to a Students' Union political policy, it is the responsibility of the Vice-President Academic to prepare the required presentation to the Students' Union Council.

c. The Vice-President Finance, who shall

- i. either choose to form a budget committee or personally prepare a budget for ASC's approval;
- ii. ensure Augustana clubs and media are accountable to the ASA for all expenditures made;
- iii. keep an ongoing search of ways that the ASA can expand revenue sources;
- iv. present a budget review in January and upon request of the ASA;
- v. be the primary signing officer of the ASA; and
- vi. follow the policy and update as approved by the ASC.

d. The Vice-President Communications, who shall

- i. deal with all of the external communications and memberships of the Students' Association;
- ii. oversee the day-to-day running of internal publications and media of the Students' Association;
- iii. be a signing officer of the ASA;
- iv. be responsible to represent or to appoint someone to represent ASA at Preview Days and Welcome Weekend; and
- v. follow the policy and update as approved by the ASC.

e. The Vice-President Student Life, who shall

- i. put on activities for ASA members. These activities should include a variety of educational and entertainment opportunities to enrich the ASA members' time at Augustana;
- ii. be responsible for ticket sales and security at all ASA events;
- iii. shall chair all Student Activities Coordinating Committee meetings;
- iv. maintain on-going communication with club presidents;
- v. be a signing officer of the ASA; and
- vi. follow the policy and update as approved by the ASC.

f. The Executive Director, who shall

- i. be an ex-officio advisory member of the Executive and Students' Council with non-voting status, and whose presence shall not be a factor in determining quorum at any meetings;
- ii. attend all Executive and Students' Council meetings as deemed necessary by the Executive;
- iii. carry out all managerial functions for the Students' Association. The Executive Director shall be responsible for taking minutes at all meetings of the society, and all minutes of the society shall be kept by the Executive Director;
- iv. keep permanent and accurate records of all financial transactions of the ASA and report the same when requested by ASC;
- v. be responsible for providing all receipts and records for an annual audit;
- vi. be responsible for all financial transactions (payments and receipts) of the ASA;
- vii. ensure Augustana clubs and media are accountable to the ASA for all expenditures;
- viii. keep an ongoing search of ways that the Students' Association can expand revenue sources; and
- ix. be the primary signing officer of the ASA.

4. The ASC shall also consist of eleven (11) elected representative members. Each representative will be elected from a constituency as defined in this Bylaw.

a. The elected representative members shall consist of the following positions:

- i. Two (2) First Year Representatives who shall be Augustana faculty students who hold a maximum of 23 completed credits during their representative term;
- ii. Two (2) Second Year Representatives who shall be Augustana faculty students who hold 24-53 completed credits during their representative term;

- vi. Two (2) Off Campus Representatives who are Augustana faculty students who intend to live off campus for the entirety of their representative term;
- vii. One (1) International Students' Representative who is a current international student (not holding Canadian citizenship or permanent residency) at the Augustana faculty;
- ix. One (1) Aboriginal Students' Representative who is a current self-identifying Aboriginal Student at the Augustana faculty.

b. Each elected representative shall:

- i. be a voting member of the ASC;
- ii. be responsible for organizing and initiating programs of benefit or interest to his/her constituency;
- iii. serve on boards, commissions, or committees as directed by the ASC Executive;
- iv. serve a minimum of one office hour per week; those who fail to fulfill this duty for more than 3 weeks in succession may be replaced by the ASC according to Bylaw 9.01;
- v. attend all general meetings, council meetings, and all ASA retreats and workshops;
- vi. maintain a cumulative G.P.A. of 2.0 or greater. All members must submit their GPA status by the end of the second week of winter term classes. Failure to submit by the above date will result in immediate dismissal from office; and
- vii. not be on disciplinary probation. A member of Council who goes on disciplinary probation may lose all rights and privileges associated with their position on the Students' Council, subject to the decision of the ASC and the Student Review Board, for the term of their probation.

5. Failure to comply with these criteria shall result in dismissal from office. This dismissal may be prevented by a two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASC and approval by the Student Review Board as per Bylaw 13.01, except in the case of a G.P.A. lower than 2.0 where dismissal will be automatic.

6. Annual Spring Elections

a. The following positions will be elected in the Annual Spring Election:

- i. President, Vice-President Academic, Vice-President Finance, Vice-President Communications, and Vice-President Student Life: Candidates shall be current Augustana Faculty students. All Augustana Faculty students at the time of elections can cast ballots for these candidates;
- ii. Two (2) Second Year ASA Representatives: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be those students with the potential of having 24-53 credits during the academic year in which the representatives shall serve;
- iii. One (1) Third Year ASA Representative: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be those students with the potential of having 54 – 83 credits during the academic year in which the representative shall serve;
- iv. One (1) Fourth Year ASA Representative: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be those students with the potential of having a minimum of 84 credits during the academic year in which the representative shall serve;

- v. One (1) Councillor-At-Large: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be current Augustana Faculty students at the time of the elections;
  - vi. Two (2) Off Campus Representatives: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be any Augustana Faculty student who resides off campus at the time of the elections;
  - vii. One (1) International Students' Representative: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be Augustana Faculty International students at the time of the elections; and
  - viii. One (1) Aboriginal Students' Representative: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be Augustana Faculty Aboriginal students at the time of elections.
- b. Should any position remain vacant following the Annual Spring Election, nominations for those positions will be accepted in the Annual Fall Election.
  - c. The Annual Spring Election will take place no later than the last week of March.

7. Annual Fall Elections

- a. The following positions will be elected in the Annual Fall Election:
  - i. Two (2) First Year ASA Representatives: Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be those students with the potential of having a maximum of 23 credits during the academic year in which the representatives shall serve; and
  - ii. Any vacant position not filled in the Annual Spring Election. Those casting ballots for these candidates shall be current members of the constituency at the time of the election as specified in Bylaw 6.a.
- b. The Annual Fall Elections will take place no later than the last week of September.

6.02 Term of Office

- 1. Executive Members: The newly elected members of the Executive shall assume the responsibilities of office no later than April 25th of each academic year when the current Council dissolves. They shall retain their position until the end of the following academic year.
- 2. Representative members: The newly elected representatives shall assume the responsibilities of office no later the April 25th of each academic year when the current Council dissolves. They shall retain their positions until the end of the following academic year.

3. After the Annual Election, both new and old ASA Executives will be functional with regard to Bylaw 6.03. Responsibility rests with the outgoing Executive to complete commitments, and to ensure that all long-term goals are communicated to the incoming Executive. The incoming Executive and Council shall assume planning and implementation responsibilities for the coming academic year. The incoming ASC members will have non-voting status until the outgoing Council and Executive are dissolved. Incoming Executive and Council members are required to attend the remainder of the Executive and Council meetings respectively.
4. During the months of May through August the Executive Council shall be responsible for all ASC operations.

6.03 Transition Training

1. The outgoing Executive members will ensure the occurrence of a Transition Week where any new Executive members will get extensive training in the fundamentals of their position and the organization's function within the Augustana community. Items to be covered are listed below.
  - a. Many topics will be discussed in detail amounting to a minimum of one week of intensive interaction and training. This week will occur within fourteen (14) days of the Annual elections (for details on topics, see Policy E.3 in the ASA Policy and Procedures Manual).
  - b. In addition to this one-on-one training, each outgoing Executive will create a "Transition Manual" containing all information dealt with in (a) above and found in Policy E.3, plus any other pertinent information. The purpose of this manual is to provide a reference for the new Executives in the coming year.
  - c. Write a "Final Report" (as indicated in Executive contracts) that shall also be given to provide a time line of events for the last year, and an overarching sense of the operations of the Students' Association and the role that the Executive members play within it.
  - d. In the event that a particular position is not filled and a one-on-one training week is not possible because the outgoing Executive member is graduating, this person will provide the "Training Manual" and "Final Report" for the new Executive member. If the position is filled in the By-election of the following year and the outgoing Executive member is accessible, the one-on-one training shall occur the week after the By-elections.
  - e. Failure to comply with Bylaw 6.03(1) will result in a loss of the final bursary payment.
2. Outgoing Council Representatives will spend one day, to be held within fourteen (14) days of the Annual Elections, with new Reps in transition training where they will discuss topics pertaining to their positions and the fundamentals of belonging to the ASA.
  - a. Outgoing Reps will provide a "Final Report" to be used as a reference guide for new Reps as well as a "Job Description".
  - b. In the event that a particular Rep position is not filled (and for First Year Reps) and a one-on-one training day is not possible because the outgoing Council Rep is graduating, this person will provide the "Final Report" for new Representatives. If the position is filled in the By-election of the following year and the outgoing Rep is accessible, the one-on-one training shall occur the week after the By-elections.

c. Failure to comply with Bylaw 6.03(2) will result in a reduction in honorarium of $20.

6.04 Vacant Elected Positions

1. If an ASC member vacates his/her office before January 1st, there shall be a by-election within fifteen academic days to fill the vacancy.
2. The ASC shall have the power to appoint a representative to a vacant position in the event that:
  - a. the office is vacated after one by-election has already been held;
  - b. an office remains vacant following the annual Fall elections; or
  - c. an office is vacated after January 1st and prior to the regular election date.

All appointees must come from the representative constituency.

3. In the event that a Vice-President's position is vacated after January 1st, the ASC shall appoint a new Vice-President from within its membership, as per Bylaw 6.04(6), to fill the position until the Annual Election is held. A student from the Students' Association body at large may be appointed if replacement cannot be found within the ASC.
4. In the event that the President's position is vacated after January 1st, the ASC shall appoint a new President from within its membership, as per Bylaw 6.04(6), to fill the position until the Annual Election is held. A student from the Students' Association body at large may be appointed if replacement cannot be found within the ASC.
5. By-elections must be carried out in accordance with the procedures stated in the ASA Policy and Procedures Manual.
6. Regarding appointments for vacant positions, priority will be given in this order (from highest to lowest): Vice-President Academic, Vice-President Finance, Vice-President Communications, Vice-President Student Life, Council Representatives, student body.

6.05 Recall Procedure

1. Any member of the ASA may submit a written proposal (petition attached) to begin the recall procedure of any member of the ASC.
2. Upon submission of a written request for recall of any elected student official(s) with a petition of at least 20% of the representative's constituents at Augustana Faculty, the Student Review Board shall meet to call a vote.
3. The vote must:
  - a. be held within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the petition;
  - b. allow all constituents of the elected student official(s) to vote; and

- c. must have quorum of 20% of the constituency vote.
- 4. The Student Review Board shall report the results of the vote to the ASC, and if over 50% voted in favour of the recall, the elected student official(s) shall be informed that they are no longer a member(s) of the ASC.

6.06 Faculty/Staff Advisor

- 1. There shall be one (1) member of the Faculty in Session to advise the ASC for each academic year, selected by the ASA President and approved by the ASC, if the Council deems appropriate.
- 2. The Faculty Advisor shall:
  - a. attend all regular ASC meetings; and
  - b. advise the ASC on any student government matters.
- 3. The ASC shall have the power to remove the advisor and elect/appoint a new advisor if Council deems that the current advisor can no longer fulfill his/her duties.

Bylaw 7 ELECTIONS

7.01 Elections

- 1. There shall be an Annual election before March 31st of each academic year and a By-Election by October 15th of each academic year. The date(s) of the elections shall be set by the Deputy Returning Officer. The following offices will be open for elections: ASA President, Vice-President Academic, Vice- President Finance, Vice-President Communications, and Vice-President Student Life. The additional representatives of the ASA shall be elected from their respective constituencies in the Annual election except for two (2) First Year Reps who shall be elected in the By-Election. The date(s) for elections shall be set by the Deputy Returning Officer.
- 2. Elections must be carried out in accordance with the procedure stated in the ASA Policy and Procedures Manual.

7.02 Deputy Returning Officer

- 1. Criteria for nomination of the Deputy Returning Officer shall include:
  - a. appointment by the ASC to be the Deputy Returning Officer;
  - b. responsible to the ASC, and shall be an ex-officio member of the Executive Council during election periods;
  - c. shall take an Oath of Office which shall be retained by the ASC; and
  - d. shall be paid such honoraria, allowances, or expenses as the Council may deem appropriate, from time to time, in conjunction with his/her official duties.

2. Duties of the DRO shall include the following:
  - a. responsible for taking the votes of the members at General Elections, Bylaw Elections, and for voting on a Referendum;

  - e. hear, in confidence, any appeal or request for review made with respect to any election, by-election, or referendum, or the conduct of any candidate or candidates, officials, or ASA members;
  - f. review questionable candidate advertisements to ensure that they are fit for public consumption at his or her discretion;
  - g. disqualify candidates, materials, representatives, or members who, in the opinion of the DRO, have contravened the provisions of any ASA Bylaws or policies and procedures that pertain to election conduct. Any grievances/appeals with respect to disqualification of candidates may be overruled by a unanimous vote of the Student Review Board;
  - h. investigate all claims and questions brought before the office, and recommend to the Council appropriate measures regarding remedial action to be taken;
  - i. take immediate remedial action as described within the limits of any ASA Election Bylaws to rectify any infraction identified during the course of an election; and
  - j. appoint any assistants, deputy returning officers, and poll clerks as deemed necessary, and who shall act within accordance of this Bylaw.
3. All communications regarding elections, by-elections, and referenda must be channeled through the DRO.
4. At an advanced poll, the Deputy Returning Officer shall mark an unspoiled ballot for each position or question and shall retain it in confidence to be cast in the event of a tie in the count of ballots. Should the vote not be used, it must be destroyed without revealing its content.
5. The DRO is appointed for a period ending with the conclusion of the current academic year.

7.03 Notice of Elections

1. Upon deciding the date(s) of the election, by-election, or referendum, the DRO shall publish a Notice of Election which shall be a form containing either:

- a. In the case of a General Election or By-Election:
  - i. the constituencies or positions to which a candidate will be elected;
  - ii. the actual dates and times during which a nomination paper may be filed with the ASA Main Office; and
  - iii. the dates, times, and places that voting is to take place at polling stations.
- b. In the case of a Referendum:
  - i. the actual dates on which the voting on a referendum is to take place;
  - ii. the locations of each polling station;
  - iii. a clearly worded, neutral statement of the question to be voted upon. Such a question is to be capable of being responded to with a YES or NO answer.

Bylaw 8 REFERENDA

8.01 Referenda

1. A referendum shall be defined as a vote by the ASA on an issue of general concern to the Students' Association. The result of this vote shall be binding.
2. A referendum shall only be called:
  - a. by resolution of the ASC; or
  - b. by a petition to the ASC bearing the text of the motion to be voted upon and supported by the signatures of at least fifteen (15) percent of the members of the ASA.
3. The text of the motion to be voted upon in the referendum shall be so drafted as to present a clear question, sufficiently narrow in scope for there to be no ambiguity with respect to answers. The text of the referenda must be approved by the Student Review Board.

8.02 Procedure

1. Text(s) of the motion(s) to be voted upon in referendums will be made available to all members of the ASA at least seven (7) days (excluding weekends and holidays) prior to voting.
2. Prior to the vote, the ASC shall schedule an open meeting to discuss motion(s) to be voted upon in the referendum and address any questions students may have.
3. In order to pass, the motion voted upon in a referendum must:
  - a. be voted upon by at least fifteen percent (15%) of the members of the ASA; and
  - b. be approved by a majority (50% plus 1) of the votes cast.

Bylaw 9 DISCIPLINING AND REMOVAL

9.01 ASA Executive and Council

1. In the event a member of the ASC or Executive Council is found to be in breach of any provision of the ASA Bylaws or personal contracts, that person's actions must be reviewed by the Executive Council.
2. The Executive shall then recommend to ASC the appropriate disciplinary action be taken. This recommendation, regardless of its content, must be reviewed by the ASC.
3. The ASC shall review the recommendation of the Executive and decide upon the action to be taken, if any.
4. The decision come to by Students' Council, regardless of its content, must be reviewed and approved by the Student Review Board.
5. Should the Student Review Board reject the Council's decision, the issue shall be returned to Council, with rationale, to be re-examined until a solution can be found that is approved by both the ASC and the Student Review Board.

9.02 ASA Media

In the event a member of the ASA Media is found in breach of any provision of the ASA Bylaws or personal contracts, the procedure for disciplining and/or removal of a member must be done according to the policy set out in Bylaw 9.01 and 9.03.

9.03 Procedure

1. If no disciplinary action is to be taken against a person found to be in violation of the ASA Bylaws or personal contracts, prevention of disciplining will require a two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASC.
2. Disciplinary action, wherever it occurs in the ASA Bylaws or Policy and Procedures Manual of the Students' Association shall be interpreted to mean any action approved by the ASC and Student Review Board to reprimand members or employees for issues such as, but not limited to: breach of contract, violation of Bylaws and/or personal contracts, activity contrary to federal or provincial law, etc. The actions may include, but are not limited to: the garnishing of wages, suspension, and dismissal.
3. In the event that the person involved is appealing anything that is a factor in determining their status relative to the ASA, that person shall be suspended from their office until the appeal decision is heard. In the event the appeal is successful and that person is no longer in conflict with the ASA Bylaws or personal contracts, they shall be reinstated in their position and will be compensated fully for the period of suspension. Otherwise, the person's case shall proceed as outlined in Bylaws 9.01 or 9.02.

    - ii. The written appeal shall cite the grievance, relevant details, and recommended solution(s).
    - iii. The Board shall meet within three (3) academic days of receiving the grievance. Parties to the dispute may be summoned to appear. After Board investigation, the Board shall reach a decision in camera. This decision shall immediately be communicated to the parties involved and shall be binding upon the parties involved. The ASA President and the parties involved shall also be informed within one (1) working day.
  - c. review all decisions involving the appointment, disciplining, or removal of all ASC members, Executive, and the Executive Director, and;
  - d. review and accept all petitions to Council and Referenda questions.
4. The Student Review Board has the authority to accept any item for action brought to it, or return that recommendation to the ASC without approval.
  5. A vote to "accept" means the Board approves the item of action and the item will proceed as the recommendation makes clear.
  6. A vote to "return" means the Board declines the recommendation of Council and the item will be returned to Council until an agreement can be reached in which both the ASC and the SRB accept the recommendation.
  7. These are the acceptable criteria for a vote to "reject":
    - a. clarity - if the SRB feels the recommendation brought to it is not sufficiently clear to make a proper decision, it must vote to return; and/or
    - b. consistency - any recommendation must be consistent with the Bylaws and Policy and Procedures Manual of the ASC.
  8. Any vote to return an item to Council must make specific reference to the criteria used for rejection (clarity or consistency). In the event that consistency is cited in a vote to return, the Board must make specific reference to the provision of the Bylaws or Policy and Procedures Manual that the recommendation offends 9.Changes to these terms of reference must be approved by both the SRB and the ASC.
