Scavenger Hunt

Overall, I received 10 emails from students, I did receive some feedback from other students that it was too hard or challenging to complete, but we are giving an ipad so it's fair for it to be hard! After counting the answers I contacted the winners for them to choose their colours and then ordered the prizes. I will be mailing the prizes to them once I receive them, I will also be writing a thank you note to the students for participating to include in the package. I thought the turnout would be more, but considering that it is online, it is understandable.

Club meet and greet

I have sent out a form to club execs so they can give me some feedback on the event. I know it is not the most conventional way, but it is the easiest for both clubs and us to host. Just yesterday I visited the SU club fair and they too used this format, so it made me feel a little better about the chaos that was planning it.

SU Council and GFC

I have sat on the council for four months now as the Augustana rep, during that time, I have learned much about the governance ins and outs of the university. I will be providing more reports on this biweekly for SU and bimonthly for GFC. I have talked with the SU execs about making changes to some policies that are needed to prevent students in these positions from taking advantage of said position for their own personal gains or the like. I will continue to advocate for Augustana students.

Events

Planning for the events has been rather challenging. I believe that despite that, we have done a decent amount of work to make sure students are getting good events. I tried to see if we would be allowed to host AGT in person, and gave risk management a very comprehensive plan for how it would be conducted safely. They, however, gave a generic answer of no, while this frustrates me, I will continue to plan an online AGT. I will be bringing this up in council next week as I believe Augustana is in a very unique position of being a faculty and campus not within Edmonton, therefore, we should have different rules for events.
